

VOGUE

SEPT

LONDON
DESIGNER SPECIAL

THE 13 WOMEN
REDEFINING
WESTMINSTER

BEAUTY REFRESH:
PEARL SKIN,
NEW LASHES
AND STORY-TELLING SCENTS

THE BIG FASHION ISSUE

THE CONFESSIONS
OF KYLIE JENNER:

"I THINK
THAT I'M MISUNDERSTOOD"

STEPHANIE DILLON is a Minneapolis, MN based many-medium artist who drives reinvention as regeneration. Painting has transformed the way she shares her pain, joy, disappointments, and grief, as well as her gratitude for life. Dillon places a secret word behind each of her canvases and her painting 'launches' from that theme. She employs found materials and acrylics in the creation of her vibrantly coloured compositions. Visit www.stephaniedillonart.com and follow @stephaniedillon_art on Instagram.

SARAH WEBB is a distinguished contemporary British artist who has portrayed a wide range of subjects but is best known for her dramatic landscapes, seascapes and portraiture. Webb's expressive oil paintings have been exhibited worldwide including in London's National Portrait Gallery and the Queens Gallery, Based in Lincolnshire, Webb continues to paint and exhibit her work nationally & internationally. Visit www.sarahwebbfinart.com or email agent@sarahwebbfinart.com and follow @sarahwebbfinart on Instagram and Facebook.

KREETTA JÄRVENPÄÄ is an artist and photographer from Helsinki, Finland. Since 2016, she has been making floral arrangements and photographing them to capture every detail. She strives for perfection, aiming for her work to transcend typical photography. Her creations offer an escape from reality, presenting a floral fantasy. Visit kreettakreetta.com and follow @kreettakreetta on Instagram.

JULIA VON SOLEMACHER is a contemporary German artist, who studies at the Academy of Fine Arts near Munich. The joy of life, inner glow and the love for the creative process flows into her paintings to make everyday life shine brighter. In her colourful series 'Girl In A Suit', she deals with the image of women and addresses inner balance, self-confidence and self-image, with each painting having its own focus. Explore on www.vonsolomacherstudios.com and follow on Instagram @juliovonsolomacher

For ROELIE DOUW, the female figure is a favourite subject; often depicted lost in thought or giving us a fleeting glance. In her oil paintings she likes to play with the tension between refined realism and a more painterly approach. Find out more at www.roeliedouw.nl and follow @roeliedouw on Instagram.

ALEJANDRA ABAD is a Swiss-Ecuadorian artist. For her, painting is a profound journey of self-expression and discovery. Drawing inspiration from music, dance, nature, and the rich tapestry of human experiences, her artworks resonate with intensity and emotion. Alejandra has showcased her artworks in New York, Barcelona, Milan, and Zurich. Find more on alejandraart.com and follow @alejandra.abad.art on Instagram.

LINNEA PERGOLA is an experimental painter and textile artist. Originally from Los Angeles, she now resides in South Africa. Her love of nature is apparent in her diverse compositions. Visit www.LinneaPergola.com or email LinneaPergola@gmail.com and follow @LinneaPergola on Instagram.

German artist DENISE DISSMANN captivates with her abstract creations. Drawing inspiration from her emotional world and a positive outlook on life despite some challenges, she paints intuitively with acrylics. Her love for bright, vibrant colours and dynamic textures shines through, inviting viewers to experience the optimism and vitality of her work. Pictured here is 'Fly Me To The Moon'. Visit denisedissmann.de and follow @dissmann.artmode on Instagram.

STEFANA KACHIRSKI has been creative for as long as she can remember, and finds inspiration in all that surrounds her. Her acrylic paintings bring joy both to her and her viewers, as she uses the canvas to explore shapes and textures. Visit www.stefanakachirskiart.com.au and follow @stefana.kachirskiart on Instagram.

LINDSAY DEW, BFA, is a Canadian visual artist. She is drawn to creating mountain landscapes, for their texture, scale, and environmental dialogue. Lindsay's artwork has been exhibited and collected internationally. She has been featured in print and online publications. Visit www.lindsaydewfinearts.com and follow @lindsaydewfinearts on Instagram.

LEAH TORLY is a painter based in Australia. Leah blends traditional artistic styles with her own style, which is heavily influenced by impressionism and expressionism, and favours bold colour palettes and rich textures. Leah will be exhibiting a selection of cityscapes in Melbourne from October to November 2024. Visit leahortlyart.com and follow @leah_torly_art on Instagram.

SANDRA PULINA is an award-winning artist based in Germany. Her work translates the joy, beauty, and elegance of traditional artworks into a lighter, modern look. Her artworks oscillate between objective and abstract interpretations. Her paintings found in renowned corporate and notable private collections in Berlin and Düsseldorf and were exhibited institutionally in London, Washington D.C. and Tai Chang, China. 'Venus and Adonis', 140x110cm, acrylic glass. Find out more at www.sandra-pulina.de and follow @sandra.pulina on Instagram.

Australian Artist JACOB PEDRANA's body of work speaks to the wildness of the rodeo, induced by sub-tropical colouring of Australia's coastline. Jacob's self portrait paintings are a reflection of his inner feeling at the moment of impact. Featured here is 'Acid Rain: You said more of his work on Instagram @jakeypedro and visit www.jakeypedro.com to explore further.

JACQUELINE WIMMER is an abstract artist from Germany. Her passion for flowers is resembled in her paintings. She is guided by her intuition; this is how her unique works are created. Her paintings are a combination of abstract, playful and floral design. Visit www.kunstreichbyjacky.de and follow on Instagram @jacqueline.wimmerart

NICKY KNILL-JONES enjoys capturing light and colour through her photography and paintings. Her fascination with the sea, weather-fronts, cloud formations, landscapes and skies fuel her. The appeal to ever-changing nature is captured in her work. Discover more at www.nickyknilljonesart.com and follow @nickyknilljonesart on Instagram.

BEA SCHUBERT's artistic journey began at the University of Fine Arts in Braunschweig, Germany. Since, she has discovered her unique style, and has coined the term 'AbstractUp'. Her art blends vivid neon hues with everyday objects to craft pieces that radiate the sheer joy of life, in particular childhood. She has garnered international acclaim, with her pieces finding homes in international collections, galleries and exhibitions. Pictured here is 'Home is Paradise'. Find her art on beaschubertart.com and follow @beaschubertart on Instagram.

LUCY MIM is a self-taught, abstract artist primarily working with acrylics on canvas. She draws inspiration from personal experiences and nature. Her paintings, recognised for their timeless beauty, soft colours and innovative style, transform ordinary spaces into places of deep connection. Pictured is 'My Mother's Garden' (170 x 130 cm) from her latest solo exhibition, 'Almost June'. Visit www.lucymim.com and follow @lucy_mim_art on Instagram to discover more.

